Meet the Team

FlightSimWeekend is run entirely by volunteers who bring professional expertise and a shared passion for flight simulation. Guiding the event are three key organisers whose combined experience keeps everything on course.

Niels Voogd - Chairman of the Board

Niels leads the foundation's governance and provides strategic direction. He ensures FlightSimWeekend stays true to its long-term mission and community spirit.

Jannes van Gestel - Finance & Operations Lead (Secretary-Treasurer)

Jannes oversees the foundation's operations, including finance, administration, marketing, and media. He ensures transparency and smooth coordination across all areas.

Magnus Lorvik - Senior Accounts & Projects Manager

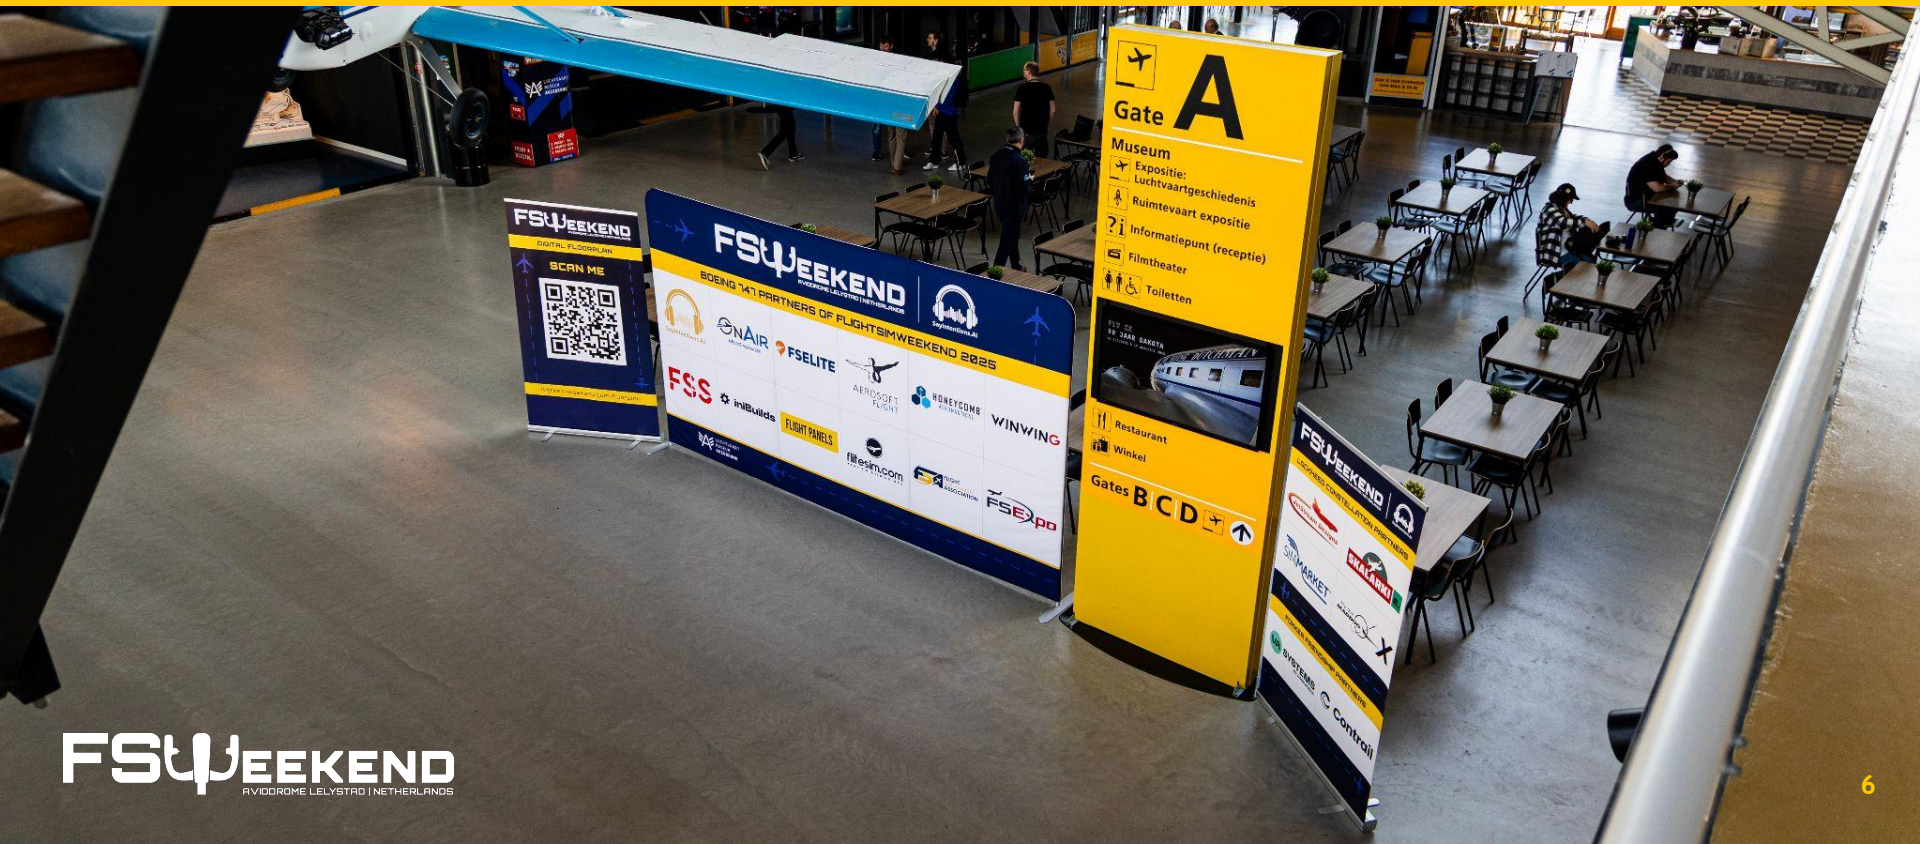

Magnus manages exhibitor accounts and partnerships while overseeing key projects. He plays a central role in maintaining strong industry relations and ensuring successful collaborations.

Together with Kris, Esmee, Willem, and Ryan, they form the FlightSimWeekend volunteer team.

Partner Benefit: Priority Booth Selection

For Titanium, Diamond & Platinum Partners

Priority Booth Selection is available to our Titanium, Diamond and Platinum Partners, subject to the following limitations:

- Partner Priority:
First choice is given to our top Partners. Titanium Partners have first pick, followed by Diamond Partners, and finally Platinum Partners.
- First-Come, First-Served:
Booth selection is handled on a first-come, first-served basis, after partner priority is applied. Once a specific booth is reserved, it is no longer available.
- Booth Restrictions:
For safety and logistical reasons, exhibitors with bigger hardware setups may be limited to certain booth locations. We will always work together with exhibitors to find the best possible placement, ensuring smooth visitor flow and proper accommodation of any hardware you wish to bring.
- Limited Availability:
Booth Selection is subject to availability. Any remaining booths will be allocated to the other exhibitors by the organisation to ensure a balanced and engaging event layout.

Partner Benefit: Your Ad on Display

For Titanium, Diamond & Platinum
Partners

Get your own ad of up to 60 seconds, shown on screens across the venue. Your ad will run in rotation with event information and other partner ads, ensuring continuous exposure to all attendees during the entire weekend.

- Ad Duration: Up to 60 seconds of video content to promote your brand or product.
- Placement: Featured on screens located throughout the venue in high-traffic visitor areas.
- Visibility: Shown repeatedly during both event days alongside event content and information.
- Engagement: Capture attention and drive interest with a prominent spot in the event loop.
- Content: Provide your own video material to tailor the message to your organisation.

Reserved exclusively for all Titanium, Platinum and Diamond Partners.

Partner Benefit: Venue Hall Naming Rights

For Titanium Partners

Titanium Partners enjoy exclusive naming rights to one of our Venue Halls, providing your brand with unmatched visibility and prestige at FlightSimWeekend 2026. This opportunity goes far beyond a simple logo placement. It places your name at the very heart of the visitor experience.

Your chosen hall will proudly carry your brand name across multiple touchpoints, including the Digital Venue Map used by thousands of visitors during the event and the Printed Event Program handed out to every attendee. Visitors will see your brand each time they navigate the event, ensuring strong and repeated exposure throughout the weekend.

Each hall also features a Dedicated Entrance Banner designed to welcome visitors. At the top of this banner, your logo will be prominently displayed, accompanied by essential information on all exhibitors located within that hall. This means your brand becomes the gateway for every attendee entering that space.

This high-impact visibility package is reserved exclusively for our Titanium Partners.

Unique Opportunity: Gift Bags

FROM €5000
Reserved for Partners

Turn every attendee into a walking ambassador for your brand. As the exclusive Gift Bag sponsor, one full side of the official FlightSimWeekend 2026 Gift Bag is dedicated entirely to your design. The other side will feature FlightSimWeekend 2026 branding along with smaller logos of our Titanium Partners.

With 2,500 bags handed out at the entrance, your logo and message will be highly visible throughout the weekend as visitors carry them around the venue. The value continues long after the event, as the Gift Bags are reused at home, at work, or on the go.

- Full-Side Branding: One side of every Gift Bag dedicated exclusively to your brand.
- Shared with FSWeekend: The opposite side highlights FSWeekend branding and partner logos.
- Mass Exposure: 2,500 Gift Bags distributed to visitors upon entry (first come, first served).
- Lasting Impact: Attendees continue to use the Gift Bags after the event, extending your visibility.

This is an exclusive opportunity, available to one partner only!

Note: The Gift Bags will be produced in your selected colour with single-colour printing

Unique Opportunity: RBF Tags

FROM €5000
Reserved for Partners

RESERVED

Floorplan 2026: Find Your Zone

Historic Aviation Meets Modern Innovation

FlightSimWeekend 2026 features two distinct zones designed for a smooth visitor flow and the right spotlight for every exhibitor.

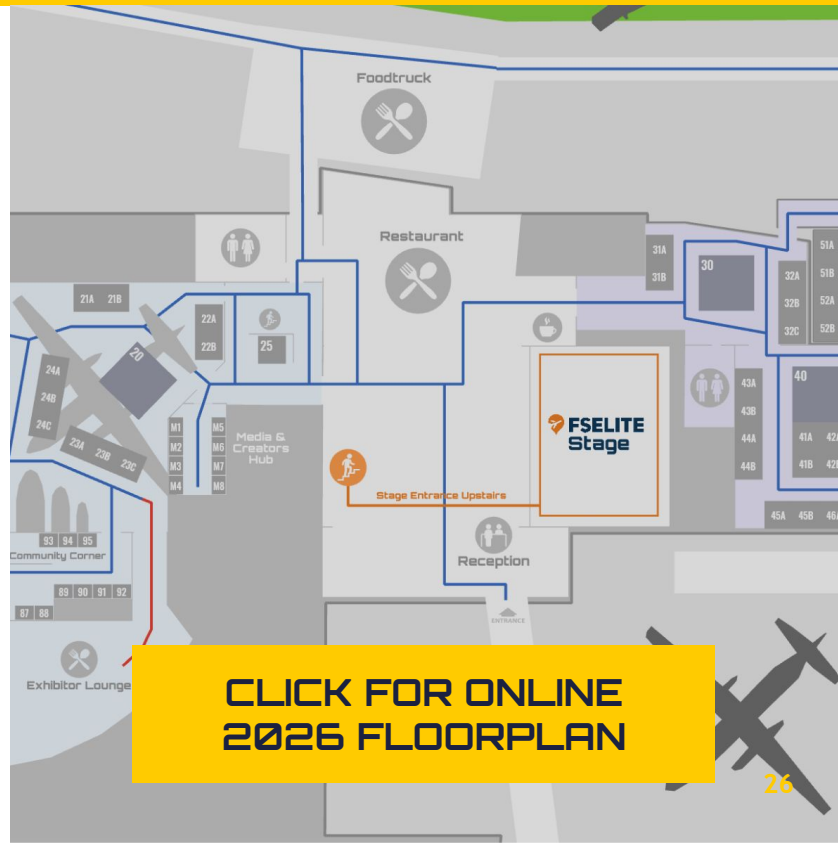

Museum Zone (Left Side)

- Set among real aircraft and aviation history for a unique booth experience.
- Ideal for larger cockpit setups, interactive demos and communities.
- Natural foot traffic through the Aviodrome aircraft exhibits.

Showcase Zone (Right Side)

- Premium white stands and bright lighting (exclusive to Showcase Zone).
- Perfect for developers of hardware and software, as well as brands seeking a professional trade-show look.
- Custom booth upgrade options (exclusive to Showcase Zone).

Guests can move effortlessly between the historic museum setting and the modern exhibition area, connected by the central hall and Aviodrome restaurant.

Exhibitor Booths

Your Presence,
Perfectly Sized

Exhibitor Booths: Redefined

Your Presence,
Perfectly Sized

FlightSimWeekend 2026 is taking exhibitor booths to the next level

To give every brand a sharper presence and visitors a smoother flow, we've redesigned our entire layout.

Our new 3 × 3 m booth replaces the previous 3 × 4 m format from 2025. This streamlined size is easy to plan, simple to expand, and perfect for eye-catching displays that can grow into larger configurations as needed.

- Single Booth (3 × 3 m) - A polished, focused space for product demos, meet-and-greet areas, or a striking single cockpit.
- Double Booth (3 × 6 m) - Double the frontage for larger rigs, multiple demo stations, or a premium lounge-style setup.
- Triple Booth (3 × 9 m) - A commanding showcase with expansive frontage, perfect for flagship installations.

Need even more room? We also offer a limited number of Plaza Booths (6 × 6 m) for the premium centerpiece space.

Triple, Plaza & Custom Booths are available exclusively to Official Partners.

Exhibitor Booths: 2026 Selection

Exhibitor Booths: Plug & Play Solutions

Your Presence,
Perfectly Sized

To help you make the most of your presence at FlightSimWeekend 2026, we offer a range of booth solutions that can be ordered directly during registration. Whether you are showcasing software, hardware, or a complete simulator setup, we provide the essentials you need to create a professional and engaging booth experience.

From extra tables and chairs to high-quality monitors, computers, and other equipment, our trusted suppliers can deliver everything directly to your booth. This ensures a seamless setup and allows you to focus on what matters most: connecting with visitors and demonstrating your products.

By ordering through us, you benefit from:

- Convenience: equipment delivered and ready at your booth
- Reliability: professional-grade hardware suited for exhibitions
- Flexibility: a wide range of options, from simple add-ons to complete workstation setups

All options can be selected as part of the exhibitor registration process, making it easy to tailor your booth to your exact needs.

Exhibitor Booths: Logistics

Your Presence,
Perfectly Sized

For FlightSimWeekend 2026 we are working with a dedicated logistics partner to simplify freight handling for our exhibitors. This service ensures your booth materials are managed professionally, from arrival in the Netherlands to delivery at the Aviodrome.

Our logistics partner can:

- Receive shipments in advance at their warehouse
- Store items securely until the event
- Consolidate deliveries for smooth and efficient transport to the venue
- Deliver directly to your booth before the event begins
- Arrange return shipping after the weekend if required

This service is strongly recommended for anyone sending materials ahead of time.

It removes the hassle of dealing with customs, couriers, or storage, and ensures your equipment is on-site and ready when you arrive. Since the Aviodrome Aviation Museum cannot accept any shipments before Friday, 20 March 2026, we strongly recommend using this service to avoid any delivery issues

Details on how to book this service will be included in the exhibitor registration process.

FSWeekend 2026: New Sim Booking System

To make the visitor experience smoother, FlightSimWeekend introduces a central booking system for all simulators. Attendees can now reserve time slots online or via QR codes, then show their confirmation at your booth.

Benefits for Exhibitors

- Better visitor flow with fewer queues.
- Fair access for all attendees.
- Visitors return at their booked time, giving you more quality interaction.
- Flexible setup: you decide slot length and availability.

Good to know

- Included at no extra cost for all simulator exhibitors.
- We set up your simulator in the system and provide signage with QR code.
- On-site support is available if you need adjustments.

This system helps both visitors and exhibitors get the most out of FlightSimWeekend 2026.
